

August 20, 2020

Dear Leadership Council Representatives,

We wish you good health and abundant resiliency during these rapidly changing times. ISMETA very much appreciate your on-going participation in the Leadership Council meetings, particularly as we navigate the shifting sands in our lives and work. Your involvement strengthens us as a professional organization and community.

We are looking forward to our September meeting. Please see the details of how to join below.

At this meeting the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Action Group will be leading our open discussion. It will surely be a rich exchange!
